

MATRIX OF MINOR DISCREPANCY ISSUE OF ASEAN MEMBER STATES ON RULES OF ORIGIN***

No	Minor Discrepancy Issue
1	Spelling and/or typing errors in the Proof of Origin (POO).
2	Size of tick marks and execution (either manual or typewritten), including crossed instead of ticked.
3	Slight discrepancies in the authorized signature in the Certificate of Origin (Form D) and/or Origin Declaration (OD) as compared to the authorized list of signatories.
4	Different units of measurements stated in the POO and supporting documents such as invoices/ packing list and supporting documents.
5	Minor differences in A4 paper size of the Certificate of Origin (Form D).
6	Minor discrepancies in ink colour (black or blue) of the text on the Certificate of Origin (Form D).
7	Slight differences in the description of goods in the POO as compared to the supporting documents.
8	Slight differences in the description of goods in the ASEAN-wide Self-Certification (AWSC) Certified Exporters (CE) Database and in the Origin Declaration (OD) provided that the keywords of the description of the registered goods are reflected in the description of goods in the OD.

* As of the 36th Sub-Committee on ATIGA Rules of Origin (SC-AROO) Meeting, 21-23 June 2021, via Video Conference Meeting.